

Gateway to sport poster competition

Terms and conditions

1. Entrance can only be expected if the competition entry is made by someone who is over 18 years of age and with the full consent of the school, the participants and their parent / guardian. There is no geographical restriction for entrants.
 2. The competition is promoted by Macmillan Education a subsidiary of Macmillan Publishers LTD, Brunel Road, Houndmills, Basingstoke, Hampshire, RG21 6XS.
 3. This competition is not open to employees (or members of their immediate families) of Macmillan Publishers LTD or those sitting on the judging panel (or their employes or members of their immediate families). The judging panel will include Dave Spencer.
 4. No purchase necessary. To enter, please visit www.gateway-online.net. Entries should be emailed to gateway@macmillan.com and will not be accepted via any other means. Macmillan Publishers LTD accepts no liability for any lost, damaged or incomplete entries and all such entries shall be deemed invalid. Proof of entry shall not be proof of delivery or receipt. There is no restriction on the number of entries. Entrants may be from individuals or teams. In the case of team entries all team members agree to these terms.
 5. The competition start date Monday 30th April and the closing date is Friday 29th June. Winners will be announced on Monday 17th September on the Gateway Facebook Page and Gateway Online Teacher's site www.gateway-online.net. Winners will be informed by email. All entries will be published on Gateway Online teacher's site www.gateway-online.net. The winning entry will be one that, in the opinion of the judges, best satisfies each of these criteria:
 - Originality of the topic
 - Visual attractiveness e.g. use of original photography and artwork
 - Presentation of factual information and key vocabulary
 - Accuracy of English
- The judges' decision will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
6. First prize will be a HD camcorder. There is no cash alternative for any prize or part of any prize. In the event that a prize is won by a team entry there will just be one prize to be shared amongst the winning team's members and the team must nominate one team member to receive the prize on their behalf.
 7. The prize is not transferable. Macmillan Publishers LTD reserves the right to change, modify or cancel the competition if circumstances require it, but will avoid causing unnecessary disappointment.
 8. By entering the competition and uploading your [work] you irrevocably agree to grant to Macmillan Publishers LTD and their respective licensees free of charge, permission to use the material in any way they respectively want in perpetuity (including modifying and adapting it for operational and editorial reasons) or made available to all related promotional purposes in any media worldwide.
 9. Copyright in your contribution will remain with you and the licence granted by you to Macmillan Publishers LTD is not exclusive, so you can continue to use the material in any way including allowing others to use it. You waive all moral rights in your contribution.
 10. In order that Macmillan Publishers LTD can use your contribution, you confirm that your contribution is your own original work, is not defamatory and does not infringe any laws, including privacy laws, whether of the UK or elsewhere, or any rights of any third party, that no other person was involved in the creation of your contribution, that you have the right to give the Sponsors and their respective licensees permission to use it for the purposes specified above, that you have the consent of anyone who is identifiable in your contribution or the consent of their parent / guardian if they are under 18, and that you agree not to transfer files which contain viruses or any other harmful programs.
 11. We normally show your name with your contribution, unless you request otherwise, but for operational reasons this is not always possible. Macmillan Publishers LTD may need to contact you for administrative or verification purposes in relation to your contribution, or in relation to particular projects.
 12. So far as permitted by applicable law, Macmillan Publishers LTD hereby excludes all liability for any loss, damage, cost and expense, whether direct or indirect, howsoever caused in connection with the competition or any prize.
 13. If you do not want to grant Macmillan Publishers LTD and their respective licensees the permissions set out above on these terms, please do not enter the competition.
 14. These terms are governed by English law.
