READING LEVEL AND AGE

READING OUTCOMES

READING LEVELS* 1–15: READING AGE (YEARS) 4.5–7

READING LEVELS 1–8: READING AGE (YEARS) 4.5–6

Students can:

- enjoy listening to stories
- make personal text choices and share reasons for the choice
- recall significant events from a shared story
- recognise common words in print
- engage actively in shared reading experiences
- make connections between characters, situations and life experiences
- read short, predictable texts with known language and supporting illustrations
- apply an emerging knowledge of print, sounds and letters to begin to read independently
- identify rhyme, sounds and patterns in texts.

READING LEVELS 9–15: READING AGE (YEARS) 6–7

Students can:

- maintain engagement during read aloud sessions and respond to closed questions
- read aloud with developing fluency
- apply knowledge of sounds, sentences, common words and punctuation when reading aloud
- make predictions and summarise consequences
- understand that choice of reading matter is influenced by personal interests
- self correct when reading out loud
- draw on background knowledge to make inferences and predictions
- choose and re-read favourite texts
- understand language conventions in written texts
- discuss characters and settings of texts, explore how language is used to present these
- differentiate between literal and implied meaning.

READING LEVELS 16–25: READING AGE (YEARS) 7–8

Students can:

- sustain listening during read-aloud sessions, making predictions and responding to questions
- understand sound/symbol connections and apply this knowledge to decode unfamiliar words
- develop and apply contextual knowledge
- with guidance, discuss different texts on a topic and identify similarities and differences between the texts
- identify the parts of a simple sentence that represent 'What's happening?', 'Who or what is involved?' and the surrounding circumstances
- engage in wide reading of self-selected and teacher-selected texts
- identify features of texts from different cultures, using cues such as language patterns, vocabulary and illustrations
- participate in guided reading activities, observing and applying reading mannerisms and interacting with the group
- develop personal reading preferences that include fiction and nonfiction choices
- identify and explain the structure of a story
- inquire and wonder about the intent of a text.

READING LEVELS 26–30+: READING AGE (YEARS) 8–9

Students can:

- engage in a variety of texts for enjoyment
- draw on an increasing range of skills and strategies to fluently read, view and comprehend a range of texts on less familiar topics
- access texts that describe increasingly complex sets of events spanning multiple pages and connect unknown experiences to prior understandings
- access appropriate informative texts to develop new understandings
- read appropriate level texts independently and with clear understanding
- identify the elements of a story: beginning, middle and end
- engage in character analysis and identify reasons for personalities, actions and interactions
- inquire and wonder about texts and what the author may be conveying
- acknowledge that different texts create different personal responses
- develop early research skills such as skimming a text for the broad message and seeking specific information from headings, illustrations and key words
- engage with a range of texts including poems and plays.
