In this course you will extend your knowledge and develop your skills as test designers and evaluators, and be provided with the insights and awareness to allow for further development after the course. The course will cover some or all of the following aspects:

- Evaluation in ELT: key principles, different models for different objectives
- Testing and assessment: review of formative and summative purposes
- Key issues in test design, construction and validation
- Putting principles into practice: producing good tests and making them work
- Making the testing and assessment coherent with the teaching
- Testing and assessing the full range of communicative skills; profiling
- Basic statistical issues in testing: item analysis and test evaluation
- Critical review of exams: what should we look for in an EFL exam
- Testing and assessing young learners
- 'Authentic' modes of assessment: self-, peer- and portfolio assessment
- Testing and the new technology: the role of computers, CATs and the Net

All course participants receive a pre-course questionnaire, which should be returned prior to the course. This is to ensure that the areas of most relevance to participants are covered.

All NILE's courses involve a significant element of English language improvement and/or development of language awareness. More information about the course at www.nile-elt.com/face-to-face-courses
