Chapter 1

Warning!

The thunderstorm raged around Suzie and her stepbrother Jin. The children were watching from the observation dome at the top of their house.

Suzie and Jin's parents were weather scientists. They lived in a special house where they could study the weather. But today they were away, studying a different storm.

“What’s that?” Jin said suddenly.
He pointed at the computer screen. “Something is being sent through!”

TORNADO REPORT. FOR URGENT
ATTENTION OF PROFESSORS LIM:
TORNADO COMING.

“It’s for Mum and Dad,” said Suzie. “We need to get this report to them!”

“But how?” Jin said, puzzled.

“Easy!” They spun around as their older brother, Mike, came up the stairs.

“We’ll take the weather machine,” he said.
